

What is an Independent Practice Association?

An Independent Practice Association is a physician organization comprised of independently practicing physicians joining together for the purpose of contracting with several health insurance organizations.

Why join an IPA?

Benefit from the strength of a large network, while maintaining your independence.

Why Choose Us

Practice Health, formerly Rose Medical Group is an independent practice association (IPA) serving the Denver-Metro area. Our network is comprised of primary care and specialty care providers that join together to access major healthcare company insurance contracts, credentialing services for available contracts, and discounted group purchasing program (CollaboRATE).
